APPLICATION BY A GRADUATE DEPARTMENT
FOR GRADUATE CREDIT FOR AN UNDERGRADUATE COURSE

NOTE: Undergraduate courses at the 300-and 400-level may be used in the cognate of a graduate program. However, in order for a 300-or 400-level course to be used in the major or minor, it must appear in the Graduate Catalog on the basis of prior approval for graduate credit by the Graduate Committee. In order to justify approval, all graduate students taking the course must be required to do additional work. The plan for additional work needs to be clearly documented.

1. Course Title _____

Department _____ Credits _____ Number _____

When was this course, as presently constituted, approved by the University Senate? _____

2. What are the prerequisites? _____

Give the catalog description of the course.

3. Describe the instructional method used in the course and describe any laboratory, readings, papers, and examinations required.
